

The More You Know

Get Ready for Health Care Exchange Enrollment

October 1, 2013

Visit www.healthcare.gov and learn more about what options will be available for you, your family, and your business on October 1, 2013.

Have current household income documents available, including W-2, current pay stubs, and your most recent tax return. This will help in determining if you are eligible for Premium Assistance.

Establish a health care budget. Use the Kaiser Family Foundation health care cost calculator to have a better understanding of how much you will be paying in 2014 and your Premium Assistance eligibility.

Review and complete the Marketplace Application checklist; this will ensure you are ready to go on October 1, 2013.
